

YES, there is entirely too much violence on television! I can see a difference in the "violence tolerance level" between my 4 yr old and my 13 yr old. I have also noticed a connection between what they see and their bad dreams.